

Mathematical Encounters of the Third Kind

A trip through the landscape of basic mathematical ideas, including

- the Pigeon-hole Principle
- prime numbers
- binomial coefficients
- mathematical proof

– meeting puzzles and paradoxes along the way.

Also featured are visits to the bearded barber, the puzzled postman and the recurring person who tried walking to infinity.